Report on Saturday Katta

23rd July 2022

The monthly Saturday session was held on the 23rd of July, 2022. It was the first session of our new semester. Since the first-year students were new to the session so we started with an introduction to all the fellow mates. All the students tried their best to introduce themselves with their hobbies. Our first presentation was prepared by the second-year students on the basic topic 'Career in Biotechnology'. They showed the possible specialisations in the field and their related entrance exams. It was indeed quite helpful for everyone. The next participant was Sapna Patel from the SY with the topic 'Impact of the teacher on student's life'. She explained how many unseen roles a teacher plays which many of us aren't aware of and how much we should be grateful to our dear teachers. The next topic was 'Books' presented by Seema Yadav from the TY. She tried to interpret the importance of books in our daily life and showed us the variety of genres. Our next topic was quite interesting since it was a creation by our fellow mate Ujala Barnwal. She had written poems on the theme 'Army,' Role of our family members' and 'Dreams'. Everyone felt connected to her poems. The last presentation was based on 'Courage to be disliked' by Sharda Jha from the TY. The title was related so much to our lives as now and then we think a million times before saying even the right things. She explained how we should be confident and give up second thoughts in terms of the right aspects. Indeed all the topics were quite interesting and informative. The session ended well with the strength of 31 students.
